

Riding Academy New Rider Course Policies

Classic Harley-Davidson would like to welcome you to the Harley-Davidson[®] family. By offering the Harley-Davidson[®] Riding Academy New Rider Course, we are able to share the Harley-Davidson[®] experience and promote safe and responsible riding.

Please read and understand the following terms and conditions:

Tuition and Refunds Policy:

- Payment: Total amount of tuition of $350.00 is due at time of registration.
- Classic Harley-Davidson must be provided with written notice (not postmarked) at least 10 business days before the start of the class to cancel for a full refund, or to request rescheduling for a future class.

Rescheduling and Retesting Policy:

- Students who withdraw from the class prior to completion or are dismissed from the class can reschedule for a fee of $125.00 for another class during the same calendar year. Withdrawing from the course would be considered: not showing up to a class, leaving during a class, or sitting out during any portion of the class. Dismissal from the course would be considered at the discretion of the Riding Academy Coach: failure to acceptably complete the class, violating class rules, performing poorly, or endangering yourself or other students.
- Students who fail the knowledge test can retest once at no additional charge (within 7 days).
- Students who pass the knowledge test, but fail the skill riding evaluation can retake it once for a fee of $50.00 at the discretion of the Riding Academy Coach.
- All requests must go through the Riding Academy Manager.
